

EYP 2005

IF YOU CAN'T TAKE THE SAMPLE TO THE LAB: TAKE THE LAB TO THE SAMPLE

Wyboston Lakes Conference Centre, St Neots
13 – 15 May 2005

While analytical scientists must acknowledge constantly evolving sampling and analytical measurement techniques, the question about where post-sampling analysis is performed is becoming increasingly important. Emerging Young Professionals 2005 will highlight appropriate strategies for different analytical problems where such decisions have been a focus.
