

Visitors Directions to Pfizer

Welcome to Pfizer. We are a global, research based pharmaceutical company and at our site at Sandwich, we discover, develop, and manufacture innovative medicines for humans and animals.

While on site we would ask you to ensure that your visitor badge is on view at all times. We kindly request that visitors do not bring cameras, including mobile phones with media capability or recording equipment onto the sites without prior permission.

Public Transport By Rail

There are a number of stations within close proximity of Pfizer. South Eastern Trains operates regular services to Sandwich (from Charing Cross and Waterloo) or to Ramsgate (from Victoria and Charing Cross) – travel time is approximately 2 hours. If arriving at Ramsgate or Sandwich stations visitors are advised to take a taxi to the Pfizer site. If arriving via Eurostar there is a train service linking Ashford to Sandwich, Ramsgate and Canterbury.

By Air

Approximate distance from airports:
 Gatwick: 75 miles
 Heathrow: 100 miles
 Stansted: 90 miles
 Kent International: 7 miles

Travelling by road

Travelling from London or (M25), join the A2/M2 and continue onto the A299. Then follow the directions shown on the local map and section detailed here.

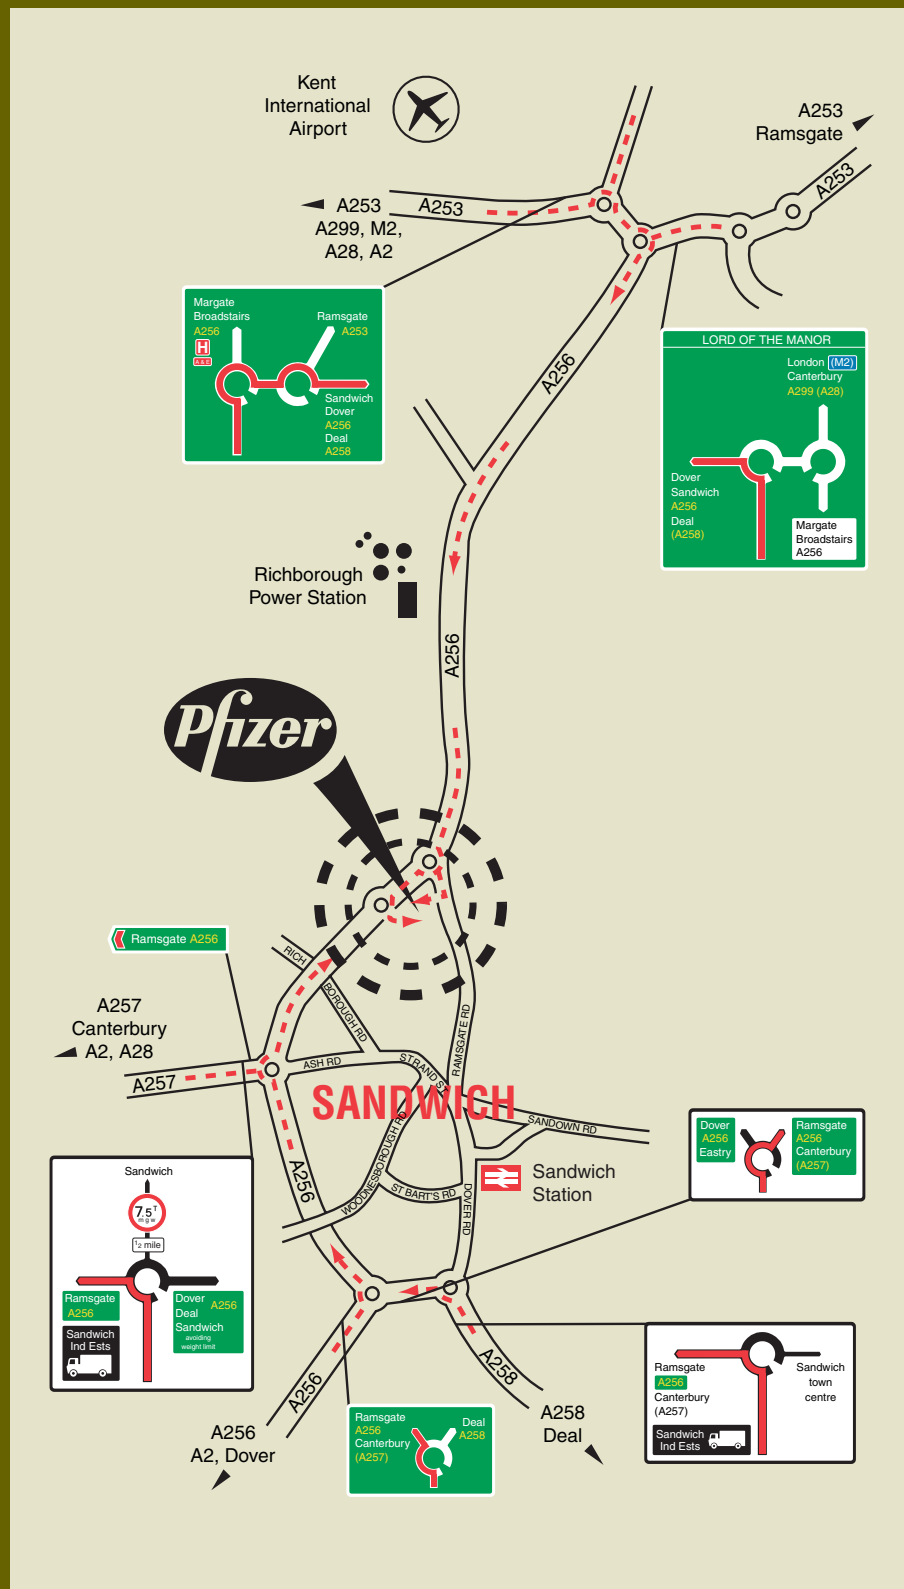

Please note that Pfizer has two visitor reporting points (West Site Reception and PGRD Visitors' Centre).

On arrival you should park in the designated visitors' car park appropriate to your reporting point ie. The West Site Reception or the PGRD Visitors' Centre. Daily site contractors and service engineers should park in the staff car parks (after their first visit here).

If you are arriving by coach, passengers should disembark at the West Site Reception/PGRD Visitors' Centre and the coach should park in the marked bays in the Coach Parking Bays/Multi-Bus Stop.

On arrival at Reception you will be asked to show identification, this can be in the form of a valid passport, driving licence or bank credit card.

Prior to departure please remember to return to the same reporting point to hand in your visitor pass and to collect a visitors' car park exit token.
